

Biliousness.
Headache, foul breath, sour stomach, heart burn or dyspepsia, constipation.

Poor Digestion.
Distress after eating, pain and bloating in the stomach, shortness of breath, pains in the heart.

Loss of Appetite.
A splendid feeling to-day and a depressed one to-morrow, nothing seems to taste good, tired, sleepless and all unstrung, weakness, debility.

Guarantee—The contents of one bottle, if not benefited, Druggists will refund you the price paid.
At Druggists, 50c. Size, $1.00 Size, "Swamp Root" to "Swamp Root" free—Consistent free.
DR. KILMER & CO., BIRMINGHAM, N. Y.
For sale by D. J. Humphrey.

THAT CHICKEN PIE.

It Was Eaten for the Benefit of the Ridgeville Band.

Religious, Personal and Other Items from the Corners.

JAN. 28th, '95.—The Ridgeville Cornet band were entertained with other citizens on Wednesday evening last at the residence of Wm. B. Tubbs Esq. The chicken pie supper was for the benefit of the band. We are not advised as to the amount realized, but hope it was a liberal one.

Miss Martha Harris, who has been living at Columbus Grove, is now spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. G. E. Emery.

The funeral of an infant child of Wilson Lettich and wife took place at the M. E. Church on Saturday.

Rev. Arthur B. Reed, an Evangelist, from Oberlin, is advertised to commence a series of meetings this evening at the Cong. church.

Henry Bolley and daughter Fattie have been absent during the past week at Pleasant Bend, called by the illness of Mr. Bolley's aged father.

The W. C. T. U., of this place, met in regular session with Mrs. D. A. Fauver on Wednesday last.

LIBERTY CENTER AWAKE

And Rapidly Recovering from the Effects of the Fire.

Death of a Respected Citizen.—A Batch of Interesting Society and Personal Items from an Interesting Community.

JAN. 21st, '95.—Our little city is wide awake and rapidly recovering from the fire. Several new buildings have been erected and are nearly ready for occupancy. The cold weather has put a stop to building but work will soon be resumed.

J. A. Wright visited in Toledo Friday and Saturday, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. S. Leist.

A party of young people drove over to Delta Saturday evening where they were pleasantly entertained by Miss Lillian Bassett at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward.

The Liberty Press has moved into its new quarters in the Weakley Block. Editor Mires is to be congratulated as he has an office and plant as fine as any in the county. We all join in wishing him success.

The postoffice was removed to its new quarters last week. Postmaster Parmington knew what would please the public and purchased an entire new outfit.

J. G. Holmes and family moved to Bryan last Thursday. Their many friends here regret their removal but all wish them success in their new home.

David Hoffer was in Napoleon on business Saturday and while there purchased a ferret. The poor rabbits will now have to suffer as Mr. Hoffer is a great hunter.

The Teachers' Institute will be held at this place Saturday, Jan. 26th. A good attendance and a general good time is anticipated.

JAN. 29th, '95.—The measles seem to be the latest fad in this vicinity.

Dr. H. P. Haag and wife, and Miss Edith Miller, were called to Toledo last Monday by the death of Mrs. Haag's father, Jonathan Wynn.

Albert and Lew Mueller were sent to the reform school at Lancaster, Wednesday.

Mrs. A. R. Kemmer visited the county seat Tuesday.

Earl Crum and Brink Hudson are suffering with an attack of the measles, as are also Sidney and Clinton Gruber.

Jacob Gelzer has taken possession of his new shop. He has the neatest meat market in the city.

Miss Clara Hudson and Miss Emma Reaick spent Sunday at Damascus, the guests of Miss Hudson's parents.

A. Leist and wife, of Cincinnati, are visiting friends in this place.

Miss Eva Slater, who has been visiting friends in this place for the past two weeks, returned to her home near Colton, Sunday evening.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the Teacher's Institute, that was to have been held at this place, was postponed until Feb. 16th, 1895.

Messrs. Beck, Hartman, Thompson and Duffy, of Napoleon, came down Saturday morning to attend the Institute but the storm proved too much for them and they were glad to take the first train home again.

Died, of consumption, at his home in this place, Jan. 26th, 1895, Brook W. Coon, aged 37 years, 6 months and 12 days. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church, Monday, January 28th, at 10 o'clock a. m. B. W. Coon was highly esteemed and generally beloved by all in this community. His devoted Christian piety and his firm unwavering faith in Christ made his life one of the purest and most exemplary that can be recorded. It can be truly said of him that his life knew no blemish, his soul no stain. In him the church loses a devoted, consistent member, the Sabbath School an earnest worker, and the temperance cause a firm confidant. He leaves a father and brother to mourn his departure, his mother and sister having preceded him to the "Great Beyond." The bereaved friends have the sympathy of the entire community.

Asleep in the arms of Jesus, While his bright light gleaming afar, Sheds its light over the Christian pathway, Like Bethlehem's glorious star.

Asleep in the arms of Jesus, Broken in life golden bow; While here lies the empty casket And down in the staid earth soul.

Asleep in the arms of Jesus, Thou art freed from earthly strife, Thou hast entered the pearly city Where the pure have eternal life.

Asleep in the arms of Jesus, Clothed in robes of snowy white, Thou shalt about the throne of God, Before that throne of golden light.

Asleep in the arms of Jesus; We know thy victory's won, So we meekly bow in submission And murmur, "O Lord, Thy will be done." LUCILE.

TUBBSVILLE.

TUBBSVILLE, O., Jan. 26, '95.—More snow but not enough for good sleighing.

Protracted meeting, which is in progress at the Ridge Church, conducted by Rev. Yeager, is being well attended and great good is being accomplished.

A "wood bee" took place at W. A. Richardson's last Friday forenoon to cut wood for the U. B. Church. About 37 men and boys were present and the result was that about 15 cords of wood were cut and hauled to the church.

A chicken-pie supper took place at the residence of W. B. Tubbs last Wednesday night, the proceeds being for the benefit of the Ridgeville Cornet Band.

A. Kline sold to M. J. Kline 7 head of fat cattle Monday for $350. He expects to ship 3 carloads to Buffalo next Saturday.

Isaac Peters is on the sick list. X.

Big Ice Harvest at Florida.

The Two Grist Mills Grinding Away.

General Doings in a Flourishing Village.

At this writing it is colder than at any other time since the winter commenced. It has gone clear down the thermometer and jumped off, and if we are to judge I think we will have a cool summer on account of the large amount of ice that is being put up by nearly every farmer in the county. The groceryman and butchers and saloons are already full to the brim, so we suppose will have cool drinks for the summer.

The canal and river banks are being loaded down with logs and wood. A. B. Rettig & Co. are overhauling their sawmill. They are putting in a new saw mill and frame and are overhauling the track and will be ready to run again in a few days.

James Taylor and wife, from Scottsdale, Pa., are visiting with Jos. Weibel. They are nephew and niece to Mr. Weibel. They think this is a nice level country and good farming land, and were well pleased with this part of the country, and think it far ahead of the land where they came from to farm. They were also visiting with the family of John C. Weibel near the infirmary.

The new Florida mill has been running the past month; they do a good deal of grinding and give general satisfaction so far, but will improve as they continue from time to time. The old grist mill is also doing good business turning out good flour and has a good patronage also.

There is another barber shop come to Florida the past week. Now we can boast of two shops. No one need go unshaved hereafter.

Adolph Rasmus, the assistant postmaster, has been on the sick list most of the past week. He has a bilious attack and at this writing is still confined to his dwelling.

Mrs. Leah Brubaker has been confined to her house the past two weeks with a swelling in her head and hard of hearing, but at this writing is on the mend and hope she will be able to be around in a few days again.

Joseph Hovey is making new improvements in his threshing machine in the way of self feeder.

The river is full of ice and water at this point and the grist mill is past running on account of the high waters.

Sammy Jones says it was so lonely the past few weeks, as his wife was on a visit to Toledo and staid away so long. She is home now again.

Florida has a few young people who like to roam together at night and don't know what hours to return home. This is a shame, especially as they are the ones who want to be long to the upper crust. ERIE.

Devil's Music at Hamler.

Bright and Newsworthy Items From Our Hustling Correspondent.

HAMLER, OHIO, Jan. 23, 1895.

"A profane tongue plays the devil's music." We are sorry that we have so much such music in Hamler.

Florida has a few young people who like to roam together at night and don't know what hours to return home. This is a shame, especially as they are the ones who want to be long to the upper crust. ERIE.

J. Guide wishes to inform the trade that he will sell winter goods, boots and shoes at cost.

Miss Anna Gehring who has been the guest of Mrs. G. A. Lindoerfer the past week, returned to her home in Baker, Ind., Friday.

See that beautiful 35c wool dress goods selling at 15c, at Barhite & Co's.

We notice that the Wickenhisser store is minus two clerks.

Mrs. Hasley Updyke, of West Leipsick, is visiting her parents in Hamler this week.

Twenty per cent. off of all springs and mattresses for the next 15 days, at J. V. TenEyck's.

J. L. Rose and wife were called to McClure last week by the illness and death of Mr. R's sister, Mrs. McClure. Grandpa Paey has been very sick the past week, but is now some better.

One hundred boys' suits worth $5, are selling for $1.50, at Barhite & Co's.

Mr. Neible has purchased the bakery of Mr. Boffman, and took possession Monday. Mr. B. will move his family to his farm south of town.

Have you seen that 35c wool dress goods at Barhite & Co's? It is selling for 15c per yard.

L. R. Parker, of Fostoria, was in town Thursday. Miss Lulu Barhite accompanied him home.

Five dollars reward for any watch that cannot be repaired by H. C. Mueller, Hamler, Ohio.

Mrs. G. A. Lindoerfer will entertain the members and friends of the Epworth League Wednesday evening at her home.

One hundred boys' suits worth $5, are selling at $1.50, at Barhite & Co's.

Mrs. P. Z. Blue is very sick at this writing; she has been in poor health since early in August, having undergone a severe siege of typhoid fever, which left her almost blind.

The Hamleters that took in the Eli Perkins lecture at Deshler Monday evening were: J. V. TenEyck and wife, G. A. Lindoerfer and wife, W. S. Barhite and wife, Misses Minnie Hayes and Ona Williams, E. E. Gardner and Ben White.

Four hundred and sixty yards of 35c wool dress goods selling at 15c per yard, at Barhite & Co's.

Miss Georgie Diekerhoof left Tuesday of last week for Findlay, where she will attend the college of music. Miss Georgie has been organist in the

M. E. church for several years, and we do "miss her since she has gone."

There was a mistake in the statement last week as to where the ladies of the benevolent society sent their goods for the poor. They were sent to the Chicago Medical Missions instead of Cleveland. "The gift that is always pleasing in the sight of God is the one that is associated with the blood of self-sacrifice." The ladies of Hamler have sacrificed their time, labor and expense in trying to do their part in relieving the wants of the poor this winter, after relieving the wants of our own poor at home, as far as their knowledge went, they prepared and sent 210 pounds of men's women's and children's clothing to the Chicago Medical Mission.

SALVATION ARMY

To Swoop Down Upon Deshler.

R. R. Interest.—Death of a Pioneer.—Theatrical Couple Made Happy.—Personal.

JAN. 25, '95.—The Salvation Army will come to our town Jan. 29, Capt. Gale and wife in command.

The building of the new railroad from Deshler to Montpelier via Napoleon is causing considerable excitement in our town. All are anxious to see the road pushed to completion.

A number of Custar boys were in our town last Sunday. There must be some attraction here.

P. T. Michaels was in Fremont on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Howe, Sr., is visiting with relatives in Toledo this week.

Rev. Dague is conducting a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church and is having very good success.

Rev. Simms, of the M. E. church, will commence a series of meetings next Thursday evening, Jan. 31st.

Ira Grimes has moved his family into the rooms over Dr. Lathrop's office.

Arthur H. Beebe and Miss Pearl Hawkins, of the Barbour Theater Company, were united in marriage on the Opera House stage last evening by E. A. Brown, J. P.

Mrs. Rev. C. J. Leifer and son, of Three Rivers, Mich., are visiting her sister, Mrs. John Vogt, this week.

Geo. McCrory's little boy is quite sick with scarlet fever.

E. N. Warden is in Napoleon today, (Saturday,) on professional business.

A party of school children enjoyed a sleigh ride to Custar on Saturday.

Jas. Newman has accepted a position in a Toledo hospital.

Frank Ervin, an old foreman of A. W. Lee's factory, was in our town last Monday shaking hands with old acquaintances.

Chas. Phillips has moved his family from the Geyer property on Elm street to the rooms over John Donovan's store.

E. A. Brown, of the Ohio House, was at Columbus Grove on Wednesday.

Miss Mabel Elder entertained a number of friends, on Saturday evening, at her home.

Died, at his home near Texas, O., Peter Johnston, grandfather to our fellow-townsmen, E. J. O'Hearn. Mr. Johnston was born the 8th day of February, 1808, and had he lived until the 8th of next month, he would have reached the ripe old age of 92 years. He seemed to be in good health up to the hour he died. While talking with a member of the household, he got up from from his chair and went to the door to spit, as he did, when he fell backward and expired without a struggle. He was interred on the old farm by the side of his wife, who had crossed to the other side several years ago.

A lively imagination, A peripatetic photograph exhibitor in Holland showed a lively imagination recently. During his performance the machine was heard to say "Halt!" in a loud, authoritative tone. "That," said the exhibitor proudly, in response to the question naturally put, "is the voice of Napoleon Bonaparte giving an order at the battle of Waterloo."—Springfield Republican.

She was beloved. None could resist her sweet nature, tender, sweet and mild. In her was found all womanly completeness; Loving her savior, pure and unadorned.

Now, to her cloud, has come the "silver lining." Her voice now swells the anthem of the blest. To sweet carols from her deep rejoicing. Her father called her; and his ways are best. DAISY.

JAN. 28th, '95.—Not dead but sleeping.

Very cold weather at present, and sleighing is fine.

Ada Hoy, of Napoleon, is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Charley Downard made his regular Weston trip Sunday.

LEG BROKEN? BY A FALL.

THE GRIM MESSENGER—DEATH, VISITS MCCLURE.

Relief for Nebraska Sufferers—Personal Mention—News Notes, Etc.

In the first month of January The boys were all at school. The teacher stood beside his desk Reading his new volume of rules.

"Don't go to the store boys, I tell you; Now listen to what I say; For if you break this golden rule I'll send you home to stay."

No whispering do I want, girls; For history you must study; Now be careful to what I have to say, Or else you'll get the "quidde."

And now, in conclusion, You must not write on the wall; And if you do not see it now I don't know when you shall.

Now get to your lessons and study. For an education you must have; And if you do not see it now I don't know when you shall.

Do you shiver a little these days? Mollie Messimore returned to her home at Mt. Blanchard Saturday.

Noah Reams and wife are visiting friends at Forest, O.

Nellie Smith, of Mt. Blanchard, is visiting W. A. Kraut and family.

Austin Cockran, of Napoleon, was seen on our streets Tuesday.

O. Jacobson is recovering from the lung fever.

A number of our citizens quit chewing tobacco New Years, and are using No-To-Bac instead.

Jervus Kinney acted as janitor at the M. E. church during the absence of Noah Reams.

W. A. Kraut made a business trip to Weston Saturday.

Little Jay Connolly is numbered with the sick this week.

Mrs. Fred Smith and children, George and Florence, of Cheboygan, Mich., attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. James McClure here Thursday.

Married, at the U. B. parsonage at McClure, by Rev. L. S. Woodruff, Jan. 20th, Sherman Butts and Caroline Wade, of Richfield township.

John Fries is visiting friends in Seneca county.

Andrew Johnson and wife, Karl B. Steers and Kittie Wray made a drive to the capital Monday.

Henry Errett, of Weston, has purchased the J. H. Von Seggern saloon at this place.

S. P. Kissinger thinks he is right in town. He says he is as proud of that baby boy as he was of his first pair of boots.

Damascus township shipped its earload of goods to the sufferers in Nebraska Thursday. Eight boxes of provisions and clothing, 410 twenty-five lb. sacks of flour, 65 two bushel sacks of meal, four sacks of buckwheat and other necessities made up the consignment.

Prof. L. L. Canfield, of Toledo, is here to spend a week with friends.

Maudie Nichols, of Greilton, was in this city Thursday.

Our lively man, Tailor, had the misfortune to slip and break his leg last week. He is getting along nicely as there was no bones broken, and he will soon be able to be out again. It was only his "wooden leg" you know.

She will never suffer more. A life as pure as the delicately descending snow passed from our midst, through the gates of Paradise. Mrs. James McClure, nee Emma Rose, was born Aug. 30, 1852, died Jan. 22, 1895, aged 42 years, 4 months and 23 days. Funeral services took place from the U. B. church Thursday at 10 a. m. conducted by Rev. L. S. Woodruff and attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

She was beloved. None could resist her sweet nature, tender, sweet and mild. In her was found all womanly completeness; Loving her savior, pure and unadorned.

Now, to her cloud, has come the "silver lining." Her voice now swells the anthem of the blest. To sweet carols from her deep rejoicing. Her father called her; and his ways are best. DAISY.

JAN. 28th, '95.—Not dead but sleeping.

Very cold weather at present, and sleighing is fine.

Ada Hoy, of Napoleon, is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Charley Downard made his regular Weston trip Sunday.

LEG BROKEN? BY A FALL.

THE GRIM MESSENGER—DEATH, VISITS MCCLURE.

Relief for Nebraska Sufferers—Personal Mention—News Notes, Etc.

In the first month of January The boys were all at school. The teacher stood beside his desk Reading his new volume of rules.

"Don't go to the store boys, I tell you; Now listen to what I say; For if you break this golden rule I'll send you home to stay."

No whispering do I want, girls; For history you must study; Now be careful to what I have to say, Or else you'll get the "quidde."

And now, in conclusion, You must not write on the wall; And if you do not see it now I don't know when you shall.

Now get to your lessons and study. For an education you must have; And if you do not see it now I don't know when you shall.

Do you shiver a little these days? Mollie Messimore returned to her home at Mt. Blanchard Saturday.

Noah Reams and wife are visiting friends at Forest, O.

Nellie Smith, of Mt. Blanchard, is visiting W. A. Kraut and family.

Austin Cockran, of Napoleon, was seen on our streets Tuesday.

O. Jacobson is recovering from the lung fever.

A number of our citizens quit chewing tobacco New Years, and are using No-To-Bac instead.

Jervus Kinney acted as janitor at the M. E. church during the absence of Noah Reams.

W. A. Kraut made a business trip to Weston Saturday.

Little Jay Connolly is numbered with the sick this week.

Mrs. Fred Smith and children, George and Florence, of Cheboygan, Mich., attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. James McClure here Thursday.

Married, at the U. B. parsonage at McClure, by Rev. L. S. Woodruff, Jan. 20th, Sherman Butts and Caroline Wade, of Richfield township.

John Fries is visiting friends in Seneca county.

Andrew Johnson and wife, Karl B. Steers and Kittie Wray made a drive to the capital Monday.

Henry Errett, of Weston, has purchased the J. H. Von Seggern saloon at this place.

S. P. Kissinger thinks he is right in town. He says he is as proud of that baby boy as he was of his first pair of boots.

Damascus township shipped its earload of goods to the sufferers in Nebraska Thursday. Eight boxes of provisions and clothing, 410 twenty-five lb. sacks of flour, 65 two bushel sacks of meal, four sacks of buckwheat and other necessities made up the consignment.

Prof. L. L. Canfield, of Toledo, is here to spend a week with friends.

Maudie Nichols, of Greilton, was in this city Thursday.

Our lively man, Tailor, had the misfortune to slip and break his leg last week. He is getting along nicely as there was no bones broken, and he will soon be able to be out again. It was only his "wooden leg" you know.

She will never suffer more. A life as pure as the delicately descending snow passed from our midst, through the gates of Paradise. Mrs. James McClure, nee Emma Rose, was born Aug. 30, 1852, died Jan. 22, 1895, aged 42 years, 4 months and 23 days. Funeral services took place from the U. B. church Thursday at 10 a. m. conducted by Rev. L. S. Woodruff and attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

She was beloved. None could resist her sweet nature, tender, sweet and mild. In her was found all womanly completeness; Loving her savior, pure and unadorned.

Now, to her cloud, has come the "silver lining." Her voice now swells the anthem of the blest. To sweet carols from her deep rejoicing. Her father called her; and his ways are best. DAISY.

JAN. 28th, '95.—Not dead but sleeping.